A cochlear implant might be right for you.

A couple of questions to ask if hearing aids are being used:

Do you often ask people to repeat themselves, even in a quiet room?

YES

Do you avoid social activities because you may not follow what is being said?

YES

Is it hard for you to talk on the phone, so you avoid using it?

YES

Are you tired at the end of the day because listening takes so much concentration?

YES

If you answer yes to one or more of these questions, refer to the cochlear implant programmes at www.hearinghouse.co.nz and www.scip.co.nz
