

PINDROP FOUNDATION & NCIT:

Together, giving sound to silence.

STRUCTURE

THE PINDROP FOUNDATION is a charitable trust advocating for and supporting access to cochlear implant information and services

THE NORTHERN COCHLEAR IMPLANT TRUST (NCIT) is a publicly-funded trust providing cochlear implant services

ADVOCATING FOR PUBLIC FUNDING GROWTH

+279%

Public funding for cochlear implants has increased 279% since 2006

2015

$5.29m

2006

$1.45m

All data pertains to the Northern region

ACTIVITIES

> 20,000

New Zealanders suffer from severe to profound hearing loss

LISTEN UP!

Pindrop's education programme in schools to encourage young people to protect themselves from noise-induced hearing loss

470 student educators

30,000+ educated children

HEALTH IMPACT

NCIT benefits individuals suffering from severe to profound hearing loss in the northern regions of New Zealand

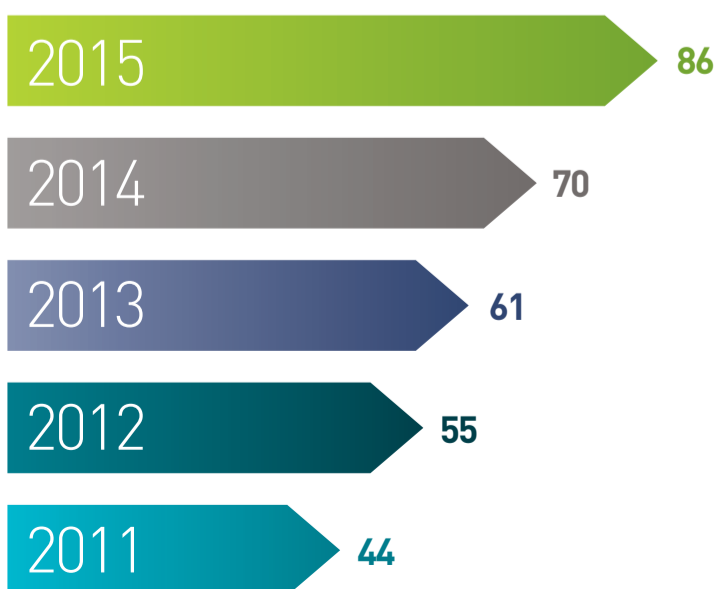

Pindrop advocates for a public service which benefits society as a whole

PERFORMANCE

COCHLEAR IMPLANTS PERFORMED

The total number of cochlear implants performed for children and adults has steadily increased over the years

Details of 2015 implants

57 child implants

NCIT CONSISTENTLY AIMS TO ACHIEVE MORE

Every year since 2007, adult cochlear implants performed by NCIT have exceeded the number contracted by Government

